The Books Posted.

We publish in full, in another column, an article from the Madison Democrat, the home organ of the State Administration, giving what it calls—and what truly is—a startling array of figures, and making a lame attempt to charge the present heavy indebtedness of the State, upon the recent Legislature. In as much as the "candid attention of its cotemporaries of the press" is commended by the organ aforesaid, we have attended to the subject candidly, and after doing so have come to the conclusion, that the people of Wisconsin think pretty much as we do, and are not prepared to defend "this inroad upon their pockets, and reckless waste of their substance," but are sufficiently well posted in the matter to lay the blame upon the shoulders of those who of right ought to bear it: and the recent Legislature is not to blame. Of course it may have made injudicious appropriations, and we should not, in all probability, differ very much from the Democrat in designating them; but they were few.

In order to meet the question at once, we accept the figures of the Democrat, after premising that the list of "direct appropriations," as furnished to us from the Secretary of State's office, is not $156,496.25 instead of $160,476.75—a difference of $3,980.50—and that we can find no warrant for the item of $7500 to the Deaf and Dumb Institute. The Democrat says:

The following table of expenditures by the last Legislature will explain the cause for the enormous burden of taxation upon people so poorly able to bear it.

Assuming the Democrat's figures to be correct, the State Legislature found it necessary to levy a tax of $300,684,25. Now inasmuch as the late Legislature found it necessary to levy a tax of $300,684,25 in order to bring the Treasury up to the first of January next—(and we have ascertained the State Treasurer informed us, that $50,000 more would be needed) the Democrat now showing leaves its own side in a deficit of about $50,000! But we go further, and are prepared with the figures to prove that of the Democrat's sum of $201,310.75 which our list of appropriations leaves by $100,674.25—full $100,000 was actually appropriated by the recent Legislature to meet expenses already incurred and contracts entered into by the Governor of 1854. Two items alone make up a large portion of this sum: about $75,000 for the State Prison, and $13,240 for the Documents of Journals.

Deducting $15,000 from the Democrat's footing of $201,310.75, we have the sum of $86,310,75—and taking the Democrat's other figures as correct, the sum to be charged to the recent Legislature would be as follows:

"appropriations,	$86,310,75
State Tax &c.,	34,150,00
"other items,"	65,232,50
	$185,693,25

Now if our list of appropriations is correct, then we have $93,079,41 from this last sum would leave $13,613,34. But, still granting the Democrat's figures to be correct, there is seen to be a difference of nearly $165,000 between the expenses of this last session and the tax ordered to be raised this year, and this difference comes down as a heavy item from preceding years, and is precisely the cause of the enormous burden of taxation upon people so poorly able to bear it." We think that this is not plain to everybody.

Now we have another to make to our Administration home organ, and it is this; that it shall look candidly over the list of appropriations of the late Legislature, and point out to the public those which it believes to be wrong, unjust, or unwise. We may probably agree as to some of them—but for every $50 so appropriated improperly, we will agree to point out $5000 saved to the State by lopping off useless expenditures; and we will promise not to include in this retrenchment the sum of about $500,000 saved by stopping the Lunatic Asylum operation.

The Swamp Lands.—A strong effort was made by the Northern Members of the Legislature to bring the Swamp Lands into market this year, but the jealousy of the of the State was too much for them, and the bills were defeated, the vote in the Assembly being a very close vote. —Montreal Young America.

We don't suppose that the people of the Northern counties mean to be deceived by any such assertions as the above, made by Senator Kolsey, the editor. The controlling reason was that the Legislature could not trust the "Forty" to dispose of the lands. Of course this is reason enough. It was not the "balance of the of State was concerned," but the State was suspicious of the "Forty."

Commerce, Manufactures &c. of Milwaukee, for 1855.

It appears that none of the seven daily newspapers published in the city of Milwaukee have taken the enterprise to prepare and publish an annual statement of the commerce and trade of that city for the last year, the Board of Trade, which works ago, appointed a committee to collect and report the statistics of the business of the place.—Chicago Tribune, April 10.

The Tribune is grossly in error. The Sentinel has regularly and published every year, an annual statement of the commerce and trade of Milwaukee. Last fall, this labor cost one of the editors of the Sentinel an entire fortnight, and the statement then obtained was the fullest yet published of the commercial statistics of our city. Its form and figures were adopted en masse by the Committee of the Board of Trade in their interesting Report. No doubt if the Tribune will consult its files of last December and previous years, it will discover that it has annually copied from and credited to the Sentinel those reliable tables of the commerce and trade of Milwaukee, prepared for and published at this office.

Why Browns City Elections.—For the special benefit of the Madison Democrat, which impudently charges us with "brazen mendacity" for what we said about the issue in the Watertown city election, we copy the following from the Watertown Chronicle:

It has by some been disputed that the election in this city was Barstow and anti-Barstow, but those disputed who may, the election for Mayor was solely upon that issue, or in other words the Barstow and balance party voted for Chappell, and those opposed to the same in fact on voted for Cole.

Of course, on this issue, Dr. Cole was gloriously elected. The suspicion of "Barstow-ism" and the candidate in it is S[illegible]arstow-ism" late.

Democratic Meeting.—The Appleton Crescent says that a large and enthusiastic meeting of the D[illegible] at the Assembly room of that town, held on the 7th inst., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the County Convention, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Appleton, have watched with pride and pleasure the firm and unwavering fidelity of our member of the Assembly, the Hon. I. H. Smith, to Democratic Principles; and that this State, as well as his immediate constituents, owe him a debt of lasting gratitude for his able investigation into State abuses, and his energetic and well timed exposure of the plunderings schemes of despicable politicians and unworthy men.

This is a double shot—a compliment, well deserved, for Mr. P. H. Smith, and a rebuke, equally well-merited, to "Bar now and the Balance."

Iowa Election.—The Dubuque Tribune of the 5th inst., says that the Republican State ticket is elected by a handsome majority in Iowa, and that the Prohibitory Liquor Law has been adopted by the People.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

RAMBLES IN EUROPE—NO. 5.

The French People—their Religion—Notre Dame.

PARIS, Feb. 21, 1855.

The Catholic religion is in France the leading, and I might say, almost the universal religion preached and taught. There are also churches of other denominations, inclusive of Jews. Every church, together with the Jews, with the exception of some few English churches, receives not only free toleration from, but is actually supported by government. Here is liberality, probably to a greater extent than is found in any other country on the globe.

The following statistics may be interesting to those who may be curious in these matters. The whole number of Catholic clergy in France may be set down at 49,000, comprising 15 arch-bishops, 65 bishops, 175 vicars-general, 661 canons, 3,338 curates, 29,537 priests, 6 chaplains for the three cemeteries of Paris, and 7,190 vicars—and to these may be added 8,500 theological students, fitting for the priesthood. Of the ministers of all other persuasions there are 507 Calvinists, 249 Lutherans, 50 of the church of England, and 86 of other denominations. The Jewish creed counts 53 Rabbins and 61 officiating ministers. The Protestant seminaries are also endowed liberally by government. The total annual cost of the Catholic clergy of France is estimated at the enormous sum of thirty-six millions and three hundred thousand francs.

The Nuns number about 24,000, but they receive no salary from the State. The different orders have about three thousand nunneries. From an official report it appears that the sum expended for Roman Catholic missions is three million eight hundred and eighty thousand francs per annum, and the receipts from subscriptions and other sources is three million five hundred and seventy thousand francs.

As I have before said, the French people are gay, happy, polite, noble, patriotic, and charitable. In all their intercourse with each other and strangers, one cannot but notice the pleasing and affable manner with which it is done. There seem to be no grades or distinctions in this respect. If a person of wealth or in high position calls for any refreshments, for instance, at a saloon, he receives it with a bow; and on leaving he tips his chapeau with as much respect as if he were leading a lady on to the floor for a cotillon. This is all unassumed and natural. A few days since the Emperor was riding out, and on meeting a coal-bearer who took off his hat, Napoleon recognized the man and returned the compliment in the same way. The common working classes are well clothed, well paid, and appear contented. Among the producing portion of the people I should think this was particularly the case. To no class is there any appearance of that restless and nervous state of feeling induced by the love of the almighty dollar. The end and aim of a Frenchman's life is not how much money he can make, but how he can spend it to the best advantage for himself and his friends. He is impulsive, but this arises not from base passions, but from a strong zeal or enthusiasm inherent in his nature. They are generous to a fault, and love their country almost as much as their kindred.—These traits always mark their character. They seldom emigrate—have no idioms of language peculiar to different sections of country as in England—are chivalrous and brave, and almost as ready to make right other's wrongs as their own.

On the whole, probably, individually or as a nation, the people of this empire enjoy as much of human happiness as any other. Whether this is brought about in any measure by their religion, or whether those who enjoy life the most here will enjoy a second life hereafter most, are questions to be decided by others. I write facts only as I find them.

But I sat down with a view of giving a description or rather partial description, for no one can conceive of their immense size and costly decorations until they see them, of a few of the churches in this city.

I name first the Cathedral church of Notre Dame, because of its age, its great size, the valuable paintings in it, and more particularly on account of its historic associations. The exact date of this splendid edifice, with its additions and repairs, is not known, and cannot be exactly fixed. By excavation in 1711, it appears certain that this spot was occupied by a temple built by the Romans. Among other things found were nine stones, one of which was a votive altar to Jove, and another bore the effigy of a Gallic deity Hesus. By some it is supposed that a church was built on the site of this temple, about A. D. 365. This was either enlarged or re-built by Childebert, son of Clovis, about 522. Others think that the old church was entirely removed, and a new one re constructed by Robert, the son of Hugh Capet, about the year 1000. But history shows conclusively that in 1185 Heraclius, Patriarch of Jerusalem, who had come to Paris to preach the third crusade, officiated in this church.

The dimensions of Notre Dame are as follows:—Length 390 feet, width 272 feet, height of vaulting 102 feet. The east end is of octagonal form, and at the west end there are two lofty towers of the same dimensions—204 feet high. The diameters of the circular windows are 36 feet. The foundations are laid 28 feet below the surface of the soil on a gravel sub-stratum. The western front is fine and imposing. Three great portals lead into the nave and aisles. They each form a series of retiring arches, with angels, saints, and other scriptural figures in the intermediate mouldings. The following subjects were selected by the sculptor for one of these portals: The angels sounding the last trump—the tombs opening and the dead rising—the separation of the righteous from the wicked—the Savior on his throne, worshipped by the evangelists and accompanied by angels bearing emblems of the crucifixion. On the arch beyond, others are seen illustrating many scenes from sacred history.—On the doors are carved the figures of Christ bearing his cross and the Virgin veiled as the mother of sorrows. It would be useless to try to give a faint description of the very many fine bas-reliefs and works of sculpture outside as well as paintings inside of this church.

Above the three doors which form the grand entrance into the church is a gallery of small pillars—formerly between these were 28 statues of the Kings of Judah. Above this is still another gallery which formerly contained a colossal statue of the Virgin—and still higher above is the great rose-window between the towers.

In the revolution of 1793, this church suffered much by the infuriated mob. They tore up the sacred vestments; four of the arch-bishops buried in the crypts of the church were disinterred for the sake of the lead coffins. In a smaller vault, containing in leaden coffins, were the entrails of Louis XIII and Louis XIV, which shared the same fate. The Cathedral then contained a fine peal of bells, but the rabble took all but one of them,—nine in number—and melted them. The one that is left is in the southern tower, and weighs 32,000 lbs. Its clapper alone weighs 976 lbs.

But if this is the outside the sensation produced on the visitor on reaching the inside, is one of sublimity and adoration. The vaulted ceilings over one hundred feet high, covered with gorgeous paintings, bas-reliefs and designs—the two great pulpits of exquisite workmanship and design, surmounted by canopies and adorned with angels holding emblems of religion—the great windows of stained glass admitting a soft mellow light—some thirty small chapels on both sides each casting the price of a common church, so richly and beautifully finished, and around on all sides, paintings and works of sculpture by the best artists in the world,—these are among the first objects that strike the eye. But he can profitably spend an hour in filling up the ground-work of the picture by examining in detail the very many works of art here collected as well as the vast and harmonious proportions of the church itself.

The organ is said to be a remarkably fine one. It is 45 feet in height, 36 in breadth, and contains 3,484 pipes. High over all other buildings in the city loom up the vast domes and towers of Notre Dame.

Bad Ax and Crawford Counties.—A correspondent of the Madison Journal states that Mr. Cole has 138 majority over Crawford, in Bad Ax County. Prairie du Chien, Crawford County, gives 92 for Cole to 81 for Crawford.

☞ Messrs. Abbott, Earnest, Rogan and Stevens voted against the resolution of thanks to Speaker Sholes, for the impartial manner in which he discharged the responsible duties of that station. Mr. Sholes is justly esteemed by his fellow members for his urbanity and impartiality, and the illustrious four above named, have only belittled themselves in this matter.—[Appleton Crescent (dem.)

Such is the unanimous judgment of the press of this State, without distinction of party, upon the very small exhibition of personal and political spite, indulged in by Messrs. Abbott, Earnest, Rogan and Stevens, on the last day of the session. There was nothing in the conduct of Speaker Sholes to provoke much less to justify, such a proceeding. He proved himself, throughout the session, to be an efficient, courteous, and impartial presiding officer; and deserved alike the thanks of the Assembly and of the People.

Fox Lake College.—The contract for the Female College at Fox Lake Dodge county, has been let to Mr. Eggleson, of Waukesha, who built Carroll College, the Jail and several other buildings in Waukesha. About $5000 will be expended on the college this summer, and the work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

A Candidate for Delegate.—The editor of the Ripon Herald, being "independent" in his political course, announces himself, thus early, as a candidate for Delegate to the next Democratic Convention, and frankly avows his purpose, if elected, to go in for "a clean Barstow and the Balance ticket." He is moved to this course, he says, because he "don't know anybody else in those "parts who will do the fair thing and submit "the Governor's conduct to the judgment of the People."

A New York Gentleman Robbed in a Singular Manner.—On the 31st ult., on the passenger train between Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio Mr. S. C. Moore was offered by a neighboring passenger several sugar lozenges, which he ate.—Soon after he became very drowsy, and slept soundly till aroused by the conductor. Feeling very sick, and attributing his somnolency to the lozenges, he was advised to examine his pockets. He found them picked of his pocket-book, in which he had $275.

A Straight Out.—The New Jersey Legislature has passed a law making provision for constructing a six-feet double track to connect with the Central and other railroads, and form a complete connection during this year with the Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroads, opening new routes to Pennsylvania and the West for coal, produce and passengers, and shortening the distance by this route between Jersey City and the Great Bend, on the New York and Erie Railroad, some thirty miles.

Lake Erie Navigation.—The Propellers Gen. Taylor and Vermont arrived at Detroit, from Cleveland (where they "laid up" during the winter) on Monday last. The Vermont is loading with machinery for Buffalo, intending to force a passage into Dunkirk harbor, if possible. The Propellers Fairy and Taylor are also loading for Dunkirk. So says the Detroit Tribune of the 9th instant.

Literary.—Curtis (the Howadji) is at work upon a Life of Mehemet Ali, and E. Edwards Lester is busy upon the Life of James Gordon Bennett, of the Herald.

A Peculiar Editor.—James W. Seaton of the Potosi Republican was elected Town clerk, School Superintendent and Justice of the Peace at the recent town election in that place.—[Madison Journal.

The Books Posted—Enormous Appropriations and Enormous Taxes.

We have placed upon record the charge against the recent Legislature, of unparallelled extravagance in its disbursements of public money, as proved by the tax levied upon the people for the coming year. It is difficult to understand why a State of our sparse population is limited number of offices and low salaries, should be obliged to raise a tax of $350,000 to pay its current yearly expenses. The following table of expenditures by the recent Legislature will explain the cause for this enormous burden of taxation upon people so poorly able to bear it.

The list of direct appropriations made by the Legislature foots up at $160,476 75

In addition to this there was appropriated as follows:

To the Blind Asylum	$9,000
To the Deaf and Dumb Asylum	7,500
Contingent fund	5,000
Contingent expenses of Bank Comptroller's office	325
Stationery for the State offices for 1855	3,000
Stationery for the next Legislature	2,500
For the support of the States Prison for 1855	13,000
Salary of the Secretary of the State Historical Society	500
Total appropriated by the last Legislature	$201,310 75

To this is to be added the following amounts which are annual appropriation, and estimates of necessary expenses for the year 1855:

Salaries, &c.

Governor	1,250
Private Secretary	1,000
Secretary of State	1,200
Assistant do	1,000
State Treasurer	800
Assistant do	1,000
Attorney General	800
State Superintendent	1,000
Assistant do	800
Comptroller	2,000
Deputy do	1,000
Librarian	1,000
10 Judges Circuit Court at $1,500	15,000
3 Justices Supreme Court at $2,000	6,000
Adjutant General	300
	34,150,00

Miscellaneous.

Traveling expenses of State Superintendent	600
Geological Survey	2,500
State Historical Society	500
Supreme Court Reporter	1,000
State Agricultural Society	3,000
Per diem of members of Legislature for 1855	23,632 50
Clerks do	3,200
Interest on State loan	7,500
Postage est.	1,500
Balance of printing "	8,000
Estimate for Census	12,000
Supreme Court Reports	2,400
	$65,232.50

Add to list of appropriations as above making a total of $300,684,25 which is the amount of bills the people of the State have to foot, thanks to the Legislature which has just adjourned.

To this table of figures, carefully prepared from the official records, we challenge the candid attention of the people of Wisconsin, and ask them if they are prepared to endorse and defend this inroad upon their pockets and this reckless waste of their substance, by their profligate representatives.

We demand the candid attention of our cotemporaries of the press to this startling array of official figures, and ask if they are prepared to defend the foolish or the corrupt action of the Legislature, which lavished upon needless or unworth objects two hundred thousand dollars which rightfully belong in the purse of the people?—Corrupted favorites and hired apologists may stammer through a lame excuse for profligacy and extravagance unequalled in the history of the State, but there are few presses and few pens in this State which will not speak a rebuke that cannot be misunderstood.

COUNTY COURT—Mil. Co.

JUDGE JENKINS PRESIDING.

Thursday, April 12, 1855.

Edward C. K. Garvey vs. Calvin J. Gilbert, Cause discontinued at costs of plaintiff.

Edward C. K. Garvey vs. Samuel L. Elmore et al. Motion for new trial overruled.

Herman G. O. Kemper vs Gustave Pfeil. Discontinued per stipulation, each to pay his own costs.

Edwin Palmer vs George W. Mygatt. motion for new trial overruled.

Daniel Wells, Jr., vs. E. D. Wolcott et. al.—Judgment for plaintiff by default, damages $744 84.

James S. Brown et. al., vs. Frederick Hickmoyer. Motion for new trial overruled.

In the trespass case tried Wednesday, between Luman Reed, plaintiff and E. H. Brodhead, S. H. Bates and P. Bennet, defendants, the Jury gave a verdict of $1000 against the first, $250 against the second, and acquitted the third.

Instead of remaining in session but for four weeks, as was originally understood would be the case, they tarried at Madison eleven weeks, and passed the following appropriations.—[Wisconsin.

We should like to know when, or by whom it was "understood" that the last Session of the Legislature was to be limited to "four weeks?"

An Omen.—A letter from St. Petersburgh, published in a Paris paper, states that the great bell of the tower of Ivan Veliki in the Kremlin, at Moscow, fell to the ground at the moment when the ceremony of swearing allegiance and fidelity to the new Emperor was going on, and by its fall crushed nearly 100 persons. For a people so superstitious as the Russians, this disaster has appeared a most sinister omen, and the latter which gives an account of the event, states that the effect on the public mind has been that of great consternation.

The Kane Expedition.

Washington, April 7.

The steam Propeller which is to form one of the vessels of Lieut. Hartstein's Arctic expedition is being fitted out with great energy at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. She will be ready to take her departure from the Delaware so early as the 15th proximo, to sail finally from New York on the 1st of June. Lieutenant Hartstein is now in Washington arranging with the department points concerning the personnel of the expedition.

The Great Race.

New Orleans, April 3.

The great race of yesterday, is the absorbing topic of discussion. Lexington did not appear at all distressed, and the spur was used only on the last quarter. Arrow and Joe Blackburn ran with him.

Annexed are the figures of each mile:

First	1.47½
Second	1.52
Third	1.51½
Fourth	1.48½

Seamen Arrested, &c.

Baltimore, Wednesday, April 11.

Captain White and the two mates of the ship James Chouton, have been arrested and held to bail for a further examination on the charge of barbarity. Several of the sailors who belonged to the vessel, testify that there were only 13 inches of water in the hold, that none of the crew were sick, that there was plenty of good water on board, and that the vessel was in good condition at the time of her abandonment. The sailors who have arrived at Wilmington and Boston have been arrested as witnesses. Rum is said to have been the cause of the abandonment.

At the city election at Hagerstown, the K. N's. elected all their candidates by 600 majority.

Test of a Good Protestant.—At a judicial investigation at Balaclava, a witness, a sailor, was asked what his religion was. His reply was.

'I'm blowed if I know.'

'Are you a Catholic?' said the examiner.

'Oh, no,' was the response, 'I'm d——d sure I'm not that, for I hate the Pope like blazes, and I delights in steaks on a Friday.' (Roars of laughter.) The judges declared he was a Protestant.

Sale of Lowell Mills.—Mr. E. S. Bailey, who removed from this city to Lowell about a year ago and there rebuilt the flouring mill, called Lowell Mills, sold and conveyed said property on Monday last to Pease & Yeager for the sum of $10,000.—[Watertown Chronicle.

Contract for Grading the Railroad.—We learn that the grading and leveling of the Railroad from Oconomowoc to this city, and preparing it for the superstructure has been let to Gen. Potter of this city, whose character for energetic action is to well known to need comment. Suffice it is to say, the work will done up in short order. The iron being all now purchased, the road will soon be completed and the shrill whistle of the Locomotive thrill through the ears of our anxious citizens.—[Watertown Chronicle.

Generally Mum.—Most of the "Barstow and the Balance" special organs throughout the State are generally "mum" on the Prohibitory vetoes. Some of them are the most respectable newspapers in the State—barring their proclivities in this respect. A reformation will undoubtedly take place.—[Potosi Republican, (dem.)

CITY MATTERS.

The Body of William Carroll Found.

Three months since a man named Wm. Carroll was missed from the Fifth Ward under somewhat suspicious circumstances, he having last been seen in the night, with his head bruised, cut and bleeding. Though much time was spent by the Sheriff and his deputies, and a large number of his countrymen, Carroll's body could not be found, the whole matter remaining enveloped in mystery. Yesterday, about 4 P. M., a boy named James Woodruff, son of the light-house keeper, discovered a body floating on the water near the Lake shore, below the south pier. He got it ashore, and it proved to be that of William Carroll. The body was searched, and there was taken from it by Ex-Alderman Humphrey, a one dollar bill on the bank of Racine, also one on the Columbia Co. bank, one dime, one half dime, also receipts, one for taxes one of J. W. Bonesteel for $50, a receipted bill of William Bonnell & Co., and a Treasurer's certificate. The silver watch of the drowned man was also found on him, and was stopped at 18 minutes past 9. The body was taken on a dray to the residence of Mrs. Carroll, mother of the deceased, living on the Point, the Sheriff and one of his deputies having it in charge. They had already taken the necessary steps for an inquest, to be held to-day by Justice Parsons. The mishap of Carroll was a mystery—the discovery of his body with at least three wounds on his head, two of them about three inches in length, his money, watch, papers, &c., found on his person, still adds to the mystery. That he had received violent blows, cutting to the skull if not penetrating it, is plainly to be seen—but by whom they were inflicted is yet in the dark, as also whether or not they were the cause of his death; but the wounds were sufficient to stupify an ordinary man. A great deal of excitement was manifested by the crowd on the beach, which got to be large before the body was removed.

"Japanese."—Mysteries follow each other in quick succession. Somebody will be good enough to tell us what the word "Japanese" means. Its designation of the comical, queerly clothed, queued people of Cathay, where, when a man offends the laws, he is politely requested to "rip himself up," and straightway performs that pleasant operation—this we understand; but what does it mean as an advertisement?

Nashotah Theological Seminary.—A number of clergymen of the Episcopal Church left on the Watertown train yesterday morning, to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the Seminary at Nashotah. Among them we noticed the Rev. Mr. Clarkson, of Chicago, and the Rectors of the three Churches of this city, Mr. Arnet, Mr. Keene and Mr. Ingraham. Mr. Clarkson of Chicago was to deliver the address. The ceremonies were to take place at 3 P. M. yesterday. Most of the material for the building is ready and it is thought it will be so far completed as to be ready for occupation by the last of July.

Magic & Swain.—Our old friends are on hand again with their spring advertisement, having gone the way of all the world now-a-days, and made a capital thing of it. Everybody knows the parties most interested, and everybody and his friends is obliged to assist this enterprising firm in clearing their shelves. Everybody will have a time of it this year, for the choice stock of new goods comes in rapidly. We have a great mind to tell how Swain always manages to get a fit, but the steamer is in, and we must stop.

Seed Wheat.—We saw at Wells & Hill's Warehouse, a day or two since, some 300 bushels of a new Spring Wheat, called the "Golden Drop," said to be equal to the best Club, and more prolific. It has been brought on from Canada by the State Agricultural Society for distribution among the members.

Auction Sale of Books.—The sale of books at Wall's Auction Room is proceeding vigorously. The attendance thus far has been large, and a great many standard works have been disposed of. It requires such an operation about once or twice a year to wake up our people to an appreciation of the regular trade. Similia similibus The buying of books begets a taste for books. Look out for bargains about these days.

Auction Sale.—Rooney has an Auction Sale of Furniture, Carpeting, Horses &c., this morning, at the Giant Auction Rooms. to which he invites public attention.

Arrested.—A man named Walter Blake, one of those charged with being engaged in the affray at the Ten Mile House on Saturday night last, was arrested yesterday afternoon by deputy Sheriff Parsons in this city, and lodged in jail.

Crossing Wanted.—The attention of the Alderman of the Third Ward is invited to the condition of their part of the crossing of Wisconsin Street, on the East side of East Water Street. The planks are all gone, and the mud all come. The contrast between the north and south parts of the crossing is very unfavorable to the Third Ward, and we presume that the Aldermen will do the right thing at once.

An Improvement.—We doubt not that hundreds of persons have noticed with pleasure during the past few days the difference between E at Water Street as unpaved last year, and as it appears this year. We trust that the Aldermen will persevere in the good work of keeping it clean.

Fire Department Notice.—The furneral of Samuel Bonnors, a Member of Exelsior Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, will take place at 4½ o'clock this Friday afternoon, to start from Engine House of Company No. 2.

All Firemen are respectfully invited to attend

JOHN MILLER, Sec'y.

Riot in the R. R. Saloon.—A number of men entered the R. R. Saloon, kept by Michael McCann on Wednesday night, and broke several articles of furniture, and also abused the landlord and his wife, threatening to kill the former, who had to take shelter in a neighbor's house, to save himself from being beaten.

Welcome Rain.—A fine shower, the first of our Spring rains, visited our city yesterday afternoon, and gave the streets, alleys, yards, and house-tops a good washing.

Breaking Windows.—Some malicious persons broke several of the windows in the building occupied as a milliner's shop, on the corner of the alley, on Wisconsin, between Main and East Water Streets, on Wednesday night.

For Manitowoc and Two Rivers.—The steamer Superior will leave Dousman's dock, on the river, foot of East Water street, at 8 o'clock this morning, for Manitowoc and Two Rivers, stopping at intermediate ports.

Union Cutlery.—A large quantity of new cutlery just received at Hardy's Cutlery Store opposite the Walker House. Two articles to be seen never before exhibited, and well worth seeing.

Military Store Keeper.—Gov. Barstow has appointed A. F. Phillip Military Store Keeper for this State, to reside in this city.

New Segars.—See notice of a large arrival of segar for Goodrich & Hunter.

New Books.—Wilson has a host of new books, including the Life of Lady Blessington.

Houses and Lots are not all sold yet. Crampton has a few more left. See his advertisement.

Post Office Discontinued.—The post-office at Cottage Grove, in this county, has been discontinued. It was one of the most important offices in the county, outside of Madison, and the cause of its discontinuance is said to be the neglect of the Postmaster to forward returns to the department.—[Madison Journal.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

JUDGE MILLER PRESIDING.

Wednesday afternoon, April 11.

Nelson Dewey vs. Garret V. Danielson et. al. Lakin & Steever complainant's solicitors. Marshal's report of sale of mortgage premises for $26,227 68, confirmed.

Harlow W. Millard et. al., vs Walter S. Hunn. Emmons & Van Dyke plaintiffs attorney. J. A. Mallory defendant's attorney. Judgment for $993 54. The Court decided that a discharge under the State insolvent debtors act, did not affect non-resident creditors.

Thursday, April 12.

Luther L. Mills et. al. vs the town of Astalan. Daniel F. Weymouth, Finch & Lynde plaintiffs attorneys. Arnold & Hamilton defendant's attorneys. The trial of this cause commenced yesterday afternoon, and is not yet ended. This is a suit against the town of Astalan, in the County of Jefferson, for damages to a load of store goods, occasioned by the upsetting into Rock River, by reason of an alleged imperfect embankment along the road, through a marsh or low piece of ground.

Amos A. Lawrence vs. Frederick Packard et. al. Finch & Lynde complainants solicitors.—Butler & Buttrick defendants solicitors. Demurrers to bill of complaint overruled.

Still Another Veto.—The "Governor" has vetoed the bill "to authorize the appointment of committee of investigation into the condition of the several State offices." It is not long since the "Balance" clan were particularly boisterous in inviting "investigations."—[Potosi Republican, (dem.)

The Books Posted.

We publish in full, in another column, an article from the Madison Democrat, the honest organ of the State Administration, giving what it calls—and what truly is—a startling array of figures and making a blank attempt to charge the present heavy indebtedness of the State, upon the recent Legislature. Inasmuch as the "candid attention of its esteem contemporaries of the press" is deemed called to the subject candidly, and after doing so have come to the conclusion, that the people of Wisconsin think pretty much as we do, and are not prepared to defend "this inroad upon their pockets and reckless waste of their substance," but are sufficiently well posted in the matter to lay the blame upon the shoulders of those who of right ought to bear it: and the present Legislature is not to blame. Of course there were some injudicious appropriations, and we should not, in all probability, differ very much from the Democrat in designating them; but they were few.

In order to meet the question at once, we accept the figures of the Democrat, after premising that the list of "direct appropriations," as furnished to us from the Secretary of State's office, foots up $156,656.25 instead of $160,476.75—a difference of $3,820.50—and that we can find a warrant for its item of $7500 to the Deaf and Dumb Asylum. The Democrat says:

The following table of expenditures by the last Legislature will explain the cause for the enormous burden of taxation upon people justly able to bear it.

Deducting the Democrat's figures to be correct, the amount is $81,064,25. Now inasmuch as the last Legislature found it necessary to levy a tax of $350,000 in order to bring the Treasury out on the first of January next—(and we have seen and the State Treasurer informed us, that $70,000 more would be needed) the Democrat are showing leaves its own side in a deficit of not about $50,000! But we go further, with it, and are prepared with the figures to prove that of the Democrat's sum of $201,310.75 —which our list of appropriations leaves by $120,654.81—full $110,000 was actually appropriated by the recent Legislature to meet expenses already incurred and contracts entered into by the Executive prior to the first of last January. Two items alone make up that portion of this vile: about $75,000 for the State Prison, and $13,340 for the Documentary History.

Deducting $110,000 from the Democrat's footing of $201,310.75, we have the sum of $86,310,75 —and taking the Democrat's other figures as above, the sum to be charged to the recent Legislature would be as follows:

Appropriations,	$86,310,75
Stock fee &c.,	34,150,00
"Miscellaneous,"	65,232,50
	$185,693,25

Now if our list of appropriations is correct, there is a balance of $29,079,61 from this last sum would leave $156,613,34. But, still granting the Democrat's figures to be correct, there is seen to be a difference of nearly $165,000 between the expenses of this late session and the tax ordered to be raised this year, and this difference comes down on a heavy item preceding years, and is precisely the matter of the enormous burden of taxation upon people so poorly able to bear it." We think that is not be plain to everybody.

Now we have an offer to make to our Administration home organ, and it is this; that it shall look candidly over the list of appropriations of the late Legislature, and point out to the public those which it believes to be wrong, unjust or unwise. We may, probably, agree as to some of them; but for every $50 so appropriated improperly, we will agree to point out $5000 saved to the State by lopping off useless expenditures; and we will promise not to include in this retrenchment the sum of about $500,000 saved by stopping the Lunatic Asylum operation.

THE SWAMP LANDS.—A strong effort was made by the Northern Members of the Legislature to bring the Swamp Lands into market this year, but the jealousy of the of the State was too much for them, and the bills were defeated, in both instances by a very close vote. —Montello Young America.

We don't suppose that the people of the Northern counties meant to be deceived by any such assertion as the above, made by Senator Kelsey, the reckless. The controlling reason was that the Legislature could not trust the "Forty" to dispose of the lands. Of course this is reason enough. It was not the balance of the of the State was "in question," but the State was suspicious of the [illegible].

Commerce, Manufactures &c. of Milwaukee, for 1854.

It appears that none of the seven daily newspapers published in the city of Milwaukee have the enterprise to prepare and publish an annual statement of the commerce and trade of that city for the last year, the Board of Trade, which we have appointed a committee to collect and report the statistics of the business of the year.—Chicago Tribune, April 10.

The Tribune is grossly in error. The Sentinel has prepared and published every year, an annual statement of the commerce and trade of Milwaukee. Last fall, this labor cost one of the editors of the Sentinel an entire fortnight, and the statement thus obtained was the fullest yet published of the commercial statistics of our city. Its figures and figures were adopted en masse by the Committee of the Board of Trade in their interesting report. No doubt if the Tribune will consult its files of last December and previous years, it will discover that it has annually copied from, and credited to the Sentinel the neat pamphlet tables of the commerce and trade of Milwaukee prepared for and published in those years.

Wisconsin City Elections.—For the special benefit of the Madison Democrat, which imputes party character to municipal elections in the Watertown City election, we copy the following from the Watertown Chronicle:

It has by some been disputed that the election of this city was Barstow and anti-Barstow, and from dispute it who may, the election for Mayor was strictly upon that issue, or in other words the Barstow and balance party voted for Chappell, and those opposed to the measure voted for Cole.

Of course, on this issue, Mr. COLE was triumphantly elected. The suspicion of "Barstow-ism" and any candidate in it in a Democratic [illegible]

APPLETON ELECTION.—The Appleton Crescent says there was a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democracy of that town, held on the 7th inst., and the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Democrats of Appleton have watched with pride and pleasure the firm and unwavering fidelity of our member of the Assembly, the Hon. I. H. Smith, to Democratic Principles; and that this State, as well as the immediate constituency, owe him a debt of lasting gratitude for his able investigation into State affairs, and his energetic and well timed opposition to the plundering schemes of despicable politicians, unworthy men.

This is a double honor—a compliment, well deserved, for Mr. P. H. SMITH, and a rebuke, equally well-merited, to "Bar now and the Balance."

IOWA ELECTION.—The Dubuque Tribune of the 9th inst., says that the Republican State ticket is elected by a handsome majority in Iowa, and that the Prohibitory Liquor Law has been adopted by the People.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL.

RAMBLES IN EUROPE—NO. 5.

The French People—their Religion—Notre Dame.

PARIS, Feb. 21, 1855.

The Catholic religion is in France the leading, and I might say, almost the universal religion preached and taught. There are also churches of other denominations, inclusive of Jews. Every church, together with the Jews, with the exception of some few English churches, receives not only free toleration from, but is actually supported by government. Here is liberality, probably to a greater extent than is found in any other country on the globe.

The following statistics may be interesting to those who may be curious in these matters. The whole number of Catholic clergy in France may be set down at 49,000, comprising 15 arch-bishops, 65 bishops, 175 vicars-general, 661 canons, 3,338 curates, 29,537 priests, 6 chaplains for the three cemeteries of Paris, and 7,190 vicars—and to these may be added 8,500 theological students, fitting for the priesthood. Of the ministers of all other persuasions there are 507 Calvinists, 249 Lutherans, 50 of the church of England, and 86 of other denominations. The Jewish creed counts 53 Rabbins and 61 officiating ministers. The Protestant seminaries are also endowed liberally by government. The total annual cost of the Catholic clergy of France is estimated at the enormous sum of thirty-six millions and three hundred thousand francs.

The Nuns number about 24,000, but they receive no salary from the State. The different orders have about three thousand nunneries. From an official report it appears that the sum expended for Roman Catholic missions is three million eight hundred and eighty thousand francs per annum, and the receipts from subscriptions and other sources is three million five hundred and seventy thousand francs.

As I have before said, the French people are gay, happy, polite, noble, patriotic, and charitable. In all their intercourse with each other and strangers, one cannot but notice the pleasing and affable manner with which it is done. There seem to be no grades or distinctions in this respect. If a person of wealth or in high position calls for any refreshments, for instance, at a saloon, he receives it with a bow; and on leaving he tips his chapeau with as much respect as if he were leading a lady on to the floor for a cotillon. This is all unassumed and natural. A few days since the Emperor was riding out, and on meeting a coal-bearer who took off his hat, Napoleon recognized the man and returned the compliment in the same way. The common working classes are well clothed, well paid, and appear contented. Among the producing portion of the people I should think this was particularly the case. In no class is there any appearance of that restless and nervous state of feeling induced by the love of the almighty dollar. The end and aim of a Frenchman's life is not how much money he can make, but how he can spend it to the best advantage for himself and his friends. He is impulsive, but this arises not from base passions, but from a strong zeal or enthusiasm inherent in his nature. They are generous to a fault, and love their country almost as much as their kindred.—These traits always mark their character. They seldom emigrate—have no idioms of language peculiar to different sections of country as in England—are chivalrous and brave, and almost as ready to make right other's wrongs as their own.

On the whole, probably, individually or as a nation, the people of this empire enjoy as much of human happiness as any other. Whether this is brought about in any measure by their religion, or whether those who enjoy life the most here will enjoy a second life hereafter most, are questions to be decided by others. I write facts only as I find them.

But I sat down with a view of giving a description or rather partial description, for no one can conceive of their immense size and costly decorations until they see them, of a few of the churches in this city.

I name first the Cathedral church of Notre Dame, because of its age, its great size, the valuable paintings in it, and more particularly on account of its historic associations. The exact date of this splendid edifice, with its additions and repairs, is not known, and cannot be exactly fixed. By excavation in 1711, it appears certain that this spot was occupied by a temple built by the Romans. Among other things found were nine stones, one of which was a votive altar to Jove, and another bore the effigy of a Gallic deity. Hesus. By some it is supposed that a church was built on the site of this temple, about A. D 365. This was either enlarged or re-built by Childebert, son of Clovis, about 522. Others think that the old church was entirely removed, and a new one re constructed by Robert, the son of Hugh Capet, about the year 1000. But history shows conclusively that in 1185 Heraclius, Patriarch of Jerusalem, who had come to Paris to preach the third crusade, officiated in this church.

The dimensions of Notre Dame are as follows:—Length 390 feet, width 272 feet, height of vaulting 102 feet. The east end is of octagonal form, and at the west end there are two lofty towers of the same dimensions—204 feet high. The diameters of the circular windows are 36 feet. The foundations are laid 28 feet below the surface of the soil on a gravel sub stratum. The western front is fine and imposing. Three great portals lead into the nave and aisles. They each form a series of retiring arches, with angels, saints, and other scriptural figures in the intermediate mouldings. The following subjects were selected by the sculptor for one of these portals: The angels sounding the last trump—the tombs opening and the dead rising—the separation of the righteous from the wicked—the Savior on his throne, worshipped by the evangelists and accompanied by angels bearing emblems of the crucifixion. On the arch beyond, others are seen illustrating many scenes from sacred history.—On the doors are carved the figures of Christ bearing his cross and the Virgin veiled as the mother of sorrows. It would be useless to try to give a faint description of the very many fine bas-reliefs and works of sculpture outside, as well as paintings inside of this church.

Above the three doors which form the grand entrance into the church is a gallery of small pillars—formerly between these were 28 statues of the Kings of Judah. Above this is still another gallery which formerly contained a colossal statue of the Virgin—and still higher above is the great rose-window between the towers.

In the revolution of 1793, this church suffered much by the infuriated mob. They tore up the sacred vestments; four of the arch-bishops buried in the crypts of the church were disinterred for the sake of the lead coffins. In a smaller vault, containing, in leaden coffins, were the entrails of Louis XIII and Louis XIV. which shared the same fate. The Cathedral then contained a fine peal of bells, but the rabble took all but one of them,—nine in number—and melted them. The one that is left is in the southern tower, and weighs 32,000 lbs. Its clapper alone weighs 976 lbs.

But if this is the outside, the sensation produced on the visitor on reaching the inside, is one of sublimity and adoration. The vaulted ceilings over one hundred feet high, covered with gorgeous paintings, bas-reliefs and designs—the two great pulpits of exquisite workmanship and design, surmounted by canopies and adorned with angels holding emblems of religion—the great windows of stained glass admitting a soft mellow light—some thirty small chapels on both sides, each casting the price of a common church, so richly and beautifully finished, and around on all sides, paintings and works of sculpture by the best artists in the world.—these are among the first objects that strike the eye. But he can profitably spend an hour in filling up the ground-work of the picture by examining in detail the very many works of art here collected as well as the vast and harmonious proportions of the church itself.

The organ is said to be a remarkably fine one. It is 45 feet in height, 36 in breadth, and contains 3 184 pipes. High over all other buildings in the city loom up the vast domes and towers of Notre Dame. F.

BAD AX AND CRAWFORD COUNTIES.—A correspondent of the Madison Journal states that Mr. Cole has 138 majority over Crawford, in Bad Ax County. Prairie du Chien, Crawford County, gives 92 for Cole to 81 for Crawford.

☞ Messrs. Ebbetts, Earnest, Rogan and Stevens voted against the resolution of thanks to Speaker Sholes, for the impartial manner in which he discharged the responsible duties of that station. Mr. Sholes is justly esteemed by his fellow members for his urbanity and impartiality, and the illustrious four above named, have only belittled themselves in this matter.—[Appleton Crescent (dem.)

SUCH is the unanimous judgment of the press of this State, without distinction of party, upon the very small exhibition of personal and political spite, indulged in by Messrs. Ebbets, Earnest, Rogan and Stevens, on the last day of the session. There was nothing in the conduct of Speaker Sholes to provoke, much less to justify, such a proceeding. He proved himself, throughout the session, to be an efficient, courteous, and impartial presiding officer; and deserved alike the thanks of the Assembly and of the People.

FOX LAKE COLLEGE.—The contract for the Female College at Fox Lake Dodge county, has been let to Mr. Eggleson, of Waukesha, who built Carroll College, the Jail and several other buildings in Waukesha. About $5000 will be expended on the college this summer, and the work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

A CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATE.—The editor of the Ripon Herald, being "independent" in his political course, announces himself, thus early, as a candidate for Delegate to the next Democratic Convention, and frankly avows his purpose, if elected, to go in for "a clean Batalow and the Balance ticket." He is moved to this course, he says, because he "don't know anybody else in those "parts who will do the fair thing and submit "the Governor's conduct to the judgment of the People."

A NEW YORK GENTLEMAN ROBBED IN A SINGULAR MANNER.—On the 31st ult., on the passenger train between Columbus and Cleveland, Ohio Mr. S. C. Moore was offered by a neighboring passenger several sugar lozenges, which he ate.—Soon after he became very drowsy, and slept soundly till aroused by the conductor. Feeling very sick, and attributing his somnolency to the lozenges, he was advised to examine his pockets. He found them picked of his pocket-book, in which he had $275.

A STRAIGHT OUT.—The New Jersey Legislature has passed a law making provision for constructing a six-feet double track to connect with the Central and other railroads, and form a complete connection during this year with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroads, opening new routes to Pennsylvania and the West, for coal, produce and passengers, and shortening the distance by this route between Jersey City and the Great Bend, on the New York and Erie Railroad, some thirty miles.

LAKE ERIE NAVIGATION.—The Propellers Gen. Taylor and Vermont arrived at Detroit, from Cleveland (where they laid up" during the winter) on Monday last. The Vermont is loading with machinery for Buffalo, intending to force a passage into Dunkirk harbor, if possible. The Propellers Mistry and Taylor are also loading for Dunkirk. So says the Detroit Tribune of the 9th instant.

LITERARY.—Curtis (the Howadji) is at work upon a Life of Mehemet Ali, and E. Edwards Lester is busy upon the Life of James Gordon Bennett, of the Herald.

A POPULAR EDITOR.—James W. Seaton of the Potosi Republican was elected Town clerk, School Superintendent and Justice of the Peace at the recent town election in that place.—[Madison Journal.

The Books Posted—Enormous Appropriations and Enormous Taxes.

We have placed upon record the charge against the recent Legislature, of unparallelled extravagance in its disbursements of public money, as proved by the tax levied upon the people for the coming year. It is difficult to understand why a State of our sparse population, its limited number of offices and low salaries, should be obliged to raise a tax of $350,000 to pay its current yearly expenses. The following table of expenditures by the recent Legislature will explain the cause for this enormous burden of taxation upon people so poorly able to bear it.

The list of direct appropriations made by the Legislature foots up at $160,476 75

In addition to this there was appropriated as follows:

To the Blind Asylum	$9,000
To the Deaf and Dumb Asylum	7,500
Contingent fund	5,000
Contingent expenses of Bank Comptroller's office	925
Stationery for the State offices for 1855	3,000
Stationery for the next Legislature	2,500
For the support of the States Prison for 1855	13,000
Salary of the Secretary of the State Historical Society	500
Total appropriated by the last Legislature	$201,310 75

To this is to be added the following amounts which are annual appropriation, and estimates of necessary expenses for the year 1855:

Salaries, &c.
Governor	1,250
Private Secretary	1,000
Secretary of State	1,200
Assistant do	1,000
State Treasurer	800
Assistant do	1,000
Attorney General	800
State Superintendent	1,000
Assistant do	800
Comptroller	2,000
Deputy do	1,000
Librarian	1,000
10 Judges Circuit Court at $1,500	15,000
3 Justices Supreme Court at $2,000	6,000
Adjutant General	300
	34,150,00
Miscellaneous.
Traveling expenses of State Superintendent	600
Geological Survey	2,500
State Historical Society	500
Supreme Court Reporter	1,000
State Agricultural Society	3,000
Per diem of members of Legislature for 1855	23,032 50
Clerks do	3,200
Interest on State loan	7,500
Postage est.	1,500
Balance of printing	8,000
Estimate for Census	12,000
Supreme Court Reports	2,400
	$65,232,50
Add to list of appropriations as above making a total of	$300,984,25

which is the amount of bills the people of the State have to foot, thanks to the Legislature which has just adjourned.

To this table of figures, carefully prepared from the official records, we challenge the candid attention of THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN, and ask them if they are prepared to endorse and defend this inroad upon their pockets and this reckless waste of their substance, by their profligate representatives.

We demand the candid attention of our esteemed contemporaries of the press to this startling array of official figures, and ask if they are prepared to defend the foolish or the corrupt action of the Legislature, which lavished upon needless or worthless objects two hundred thousand dollars which rightfully belong in the purse of the people?—Corrupted favorites and hired apologists may stammer through a lame excuse for profligacy and extravagance unequalled in the history of the State, but there are few presses and few pens in this State which will not speak a rebuke that cannot be misunderstood.

COUNTY COURT—Mil. Co.

JUDGE JENKINS PRESIDING.

Thursday, April 12, 1855.

Edward C. K. Garvey vs. Calvin J. Gilbert, Cause discontinued at costs of plaintiff.

Edward C. K. Garvey vs. Samuel L. Elmore et al. Motion for new trial overruled.

Herman G. C. Kemper vs Gustave Pfeil. Discontinued per stipulation, each to pay his own costs.

Elwin Palmer vs George W. Mygatt. motion for new trial overruled.

Daniel Wells, Jr., vs. E. D. Wolcott et. al.—Judgment for plaintiff by default, damages $744 84.

James S. Brown et. al., vs. Frederick Hickmeyer. Motion for new trial overruled.

In the trespass case tried Wednesday, between Luman Reed, plaintiff, and E. H. Brodhead, S. H. Bates and P. Bennet, defendants, the Jury gave a verdict of $1000 against the first, $250 against the second, and acquitted the third.

Instead of remaining in session but for four weeks, as was originally understood would be the case, they carried at Madison eleven weeks, and passed the following appropriations.—[Wisconsin.

We should like to know when, or by whom it was "understood" that the last Session of the Legislature was to be limited to "four weeks?"

AN OMEN.—A letter from St. Petersburgh, published in a Paris paper, states that the great bell of the tower of Ivan Veliki, in the Kremlin, at Moscow, fell to the ground at the moment when the ceremony of swearing allegiance and fidelity to the new Emperor was going on, and by its fall crushed nearly 100 persons. For a people so superstitious as the Russians, this disaster has appeared a most sinister omen, and the letter which gives an account of the event, states that the effect on the public mind has been that of great consternation.

The Maine Expedition.

Washington, April 7.

The steam Propeller which is to form one of the vessels of Lieut. Hamlein's Arctic expedition is being fitted out with great energy at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. She will be ready to take her departure from the Delaware as early as the 15th proximo, to sail finally from New York on the 1st of June. Lieutenant Hartstein is now in Washington arranging with the department points concerning the personnel of the expedition.

The Great Race.

New Orleans, April 3.

The great race of yesterday, is the absorbing topic of discussion. Lexington did not appear at all distressed, and the spur was used only on the last quarter. Arrow and Joe Blackburn ran with him.

Annexed are the figures of each mile:

First	1.47½
Second	1.52
Third	1.51½
Fourth	1.48½

Seamen Arrested, &c.

BALTIMORE, Wednesday, April 11.

Captain White and the two mates of the ship James Cheston, have been arrested and held to bail for a further examination on the charge of barbarity. Several of the sailors who belonged to the vessel, testify that there were only 13 inches of water in the hold, that none of the crew were sick, that there was plenty of good water on board, and that the vessel was in good condition at the time of her abandonment. The sailors who have arrived at Wilmington and Boston have been arrested as witnesses. Rum is said to have been the cause of the abandonment.

At the city election at Hagerstown, the K. N's. elected all their candidates by 600 majority.

TEST OF A GOOD PROTESTANT.—At a judicial investigation at Balaclava, a witness, a sailor, was asked what his religion was. His reply was.

'I'm blowed if I know.'

'Are you a Catholic?' said the examiner.

'Oh, no,' was the response. 'I'm d——d sure I'm not that, for I hate the Pope like blazes, and I delights in steaks on a Friday.' (Roars of laughter.) The judges declared he was a Protestant.

SALE OF LOWELL MILLS.—Mr. E. S. Bailey, who removed from this city to Lowell about a year ago and there rebuilt the flouring mill called Lowell Mills, sold and conveyed said property on Monday last to Pease & Vieger for the sum of $10,000.—[Watertown Chronicle.

CONTRACT FOR GRADING THE RAILROAD.—We learn that the grading and leveling of the Railroad from Oconomowoc to this city, and preparing it for the superstructure has been let to Gen. Potter of this city, whose character for energetic action is to well known to need comment. Suffice it is to say, the work will done up in short order. The iron being all now purchased, the road will soon be completed and the shrill whistle of the Locomotive shrill through the ears of our anxious citizens.—[Watertown Chronicle.

GENERALLY MUM.—Most of the "Barstow and the Balance" special organs throughout the State are generally "mum" on the Prohibitory vetoes. Some of them are the most respectable newspapers in the State—barring their proclivities in this respect. A reformation will undoubtedly take place.—[Potosi Republican, (dem.)

CITY MATTERS.

The Body of William Carroll Found.

Three months since a man named Wm. Carroll was missed from the Fifth Ward under somewhat suspicious circumstances, he having last been seen in the night, with his head bruised, or cut and bleeding. Though much time was spent by the Sheriff and his deputies, and a large number of his countrymen, Carroll's body could not be found, the whole matter remaining enveloped in mystery. Yesterday, about 4 P. M., a boy named James Woodruff, son of the light-house keeper, discovered a body floating on the water near the Lake shore, below the south pier. He got it ashore, and it proved to be that of William Carroll. The body was searched, and there was taken from it by Ex-Alderman Humphrey, a one dollar bill on the bank of Racine, also one on the Columbia Co. bank, one dime, one half-dime, also receipts, one for taxes one of J. W. Bonesteel for $50, a receipted bill of Williams, Bonnell & Co., and a Treasurer's certificate. The silver watch of the drowned man was also found on him, and was stopped at 18 minutes past 9. The body was taken on a dray to the residence of Mrs. Carroll, mother of the deceased, living on the Point, the Sheriff and one of his deputies having it in charge. They had already taken the necessary steps for an inquest, to be held to-day by Justice Parsons. The missing of Carroll was a mystery—the discovery of his body with at least three wounds on his head, two of them about three inches in length, his money, watch, papers, &c., found on his person still adds to the mystery. That he had received violent blows, cutting to the skull if not penetrating it, is plainly to be seen—but by whom they were inflicted is yet in the dark, as also whether or not they were the cause of his death; but the wounds were sufficient to stupify an ordinary man. A great deal of excitement was manifested by the crowd on the beach, which got to be large before the body was removed.

"JAPANESE."—Mysteries follow each other in quick succession. Somebody will be good enough to tell us what the word "Japanese" means. Its designation of the comical, queerly clothed, queued people of Cathay, where, when a man offends the laws, he is politely requested to "rip himself up," and straightway performs that pleasant operation—this we understand; but what does it mean as an advertisement?

NASHOTAH THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.—A number of clergymen of the Episcopal Church left on the Watertown train yesterday morning, to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the Seminary at Nashotah. Among them, we noticed the Rev. Mr. CLARKSON, of Chicago, and the Rectors of the three Churches of this city, Mr. ARNET, Mr. KEENE and Mr. INGRAHAM. Mr. CLARKSON of Chicago was to deliver the address. The ceremonies were to take place at 3 P. M. yesterday. Most of the material for the building is ready and it is thought it will be so far completed as to be ready for occupation by the last of July.

MAGIE & SWAIN.—Our old friends are on hand again with their spring advertisement, having gone the way of all the world now-a-days, and made a capital thing of it. Everybody knows the parties most interested, and everybody and his friends is obliged to assist this enterprising firm in clearing their shelves. Everybody will have a time of it this year, for the choice stock of new goods comes in rapidly. We have a great mind to tell how SWAIN always manages to get a fit, but the steamer is in, and we must stop.

SEED WHEAT.—We saw at WELLS & HILL'S Warehouse, a day or two since, some 300 bushels of a new Spring Wheat, called the "Golden Drop," said to be equal to the best Club, and more prolific. It has been brought on from Canada by the State Agricultural Society for distribution among the members.

AUCTION SALE OF BOOKS.—The sale of books at Wall's Auction Room is proceeding vigorously. The attendance thus far has been large, and a great many standard works have been disposed of. It requires such an operation about once or twice a year to wake up our people to an appreciation of the regular trade. Similia similibus. The buying of books begets a taste for books. Look out for bargains about these days.

AUCTION SALE.—ROONEY has an Auction Sale of Furniture, Carpeting, Horses &c., this morning, at the Giant Auction Rooms, to which he invites public attention.

ARRESTED.—A man named Walter Blake, one of those charged with being engaged in the affray at the Ten Mile House on Saturday night last, was arrested yesterday afternoon by deputy Sheriff Parsons in this city, and lodged in jail.

CROSSING WANTED.—The attention of the Aldermen of the Third Ward is invited to the condition of their part of the crossing of Wisconsin Street, on the East side of East Water Street. The planks are all gone, and the mud all come. The contrast between the north and south parts of the crossing is very unfavorable to the Third Ward, and we presume that the Alderman will do the right thing at once.

AN IMPROVEMENT.—We doubt not that hundreds of persons have noticed with pleasure during the past few days the difference between East Water Street as repaved last year, and as it appears this year. We trust that the Alderman will persevere in the good work of keeping it clean.

FIRE DEPARTMENT NOTICE.—The funeral of Samuel Bonners, a Member of Exelsior Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, will take place at 4½ o'clock this Friday afternoon, to start from Engine House of Company No. 2.

All Firemen are respectfully invited to attend

JOHN MILLER, Sec'y.
P. WEBER, Foreman.
H. & L. Co.

RIOT IN THE R. R. SALOON.—A number of men entered the R. R. Saloon, kept by Michael McCann on Wednesday night, and broke several articles of furniture, and also abused the landlord and his wife, threatening to kill the former, who had to take shelter in a neighbor's house, to save himself from being beaten.

WELCOME RAIN.—A fine shower, the first of our Spring rains, visited our city yesterday afternoon, and gave the streets, alleys, yards, and house-tops a good washing.

BREAKING WINDOWS.—Some malicious persons broke several of the windows in the building occupied as a milliner's shop, on the corner of the alley, on Wisconsin, between Main and East Water Streets, on Wednesday night.

FOR MANITOWOC AND TWO RIVERS.—The steamer Superior will leave Dousman's dock, on the river, foot of East Water street, at 8 o'clock this morning, for Manitowoc and Two Rivers, stopping at intermediate ports.

CHOICE CUTLERY.—A large quantity of new cutlery just received at Hardy's Cutlery Store opposite the Walker House. Two articles to be seen, never before exhibited, and well worth seeing.

MILITARY STORE KEEPER.—Gov. BARSTOW has appointed A. F. PHILLIP Military Store Keeper for this State, to reside in this city.

NEW SEGARS.—See notice of a large arrival of segars for GOODRICH & HUNTER.

NEW BOOKS.—WILSON has a host of new books, including the Life of Lady Blessington.

HOUSES AND LOTS are not all sold yet. CRAMPTON has a few more left. See his advertisement.

POST OFFICE DISCONTINUED.—The post-office at Cottage Grove, in this county, has been discontinued. It was one of the most important offices in the county, outside of Madison, and the cause of its discontinuance is said to be the neglect of the Postmaster to forward returns to the department.—[Madison Journal.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

JUDGE MILLER PRESIDING.

Wednesday afternoon, April 11.

Nelson Dewey vs. Garret V. Dunniston et. al. Lakin & Steever complainant's solicitors. Marshal's report of sale of mortgage premises for $26,227 68, confirmed.

Harlow W. Millard et. al., vs Walter S. Hunn. Emmons & Van Dyke plaintiffs attorney. J. A. Mallory defendant's attorney. Judgment for $993 54. The Court decided that a discharge under the State insolvent debtors act, did not affect non-resident creditors.

Thursday, April 12.

Luther L. Mills et. al. vs the town of Astalan. Daniel F. Weymouth, Finch & Lynde plaintiffs attorneys. Arnold & Hamilton defendant's attorneys. The trial of this cause commenced yesterday afternoon, and is not yet ended. This is a suit against the town of Astalan, in the County of Jefferson, for damages to a load of store goods, occasioned by the upsetting into Rock River, by reason of an alleged imperfect embankment along the road, through a marsh or low piece of ground.

Amos A. Lawrence vs. Frederick Packard et. al. Finch & Lynde complainants solicitors.—Butler & Buttrick defendants solicitors. Demurrers to bill of complaint overruled.

STILL ANOTHER VETO.—The Governor has vetoed the bill "to authorize the appointment of committee of investigation into the condition of the several State offices." It is not long since the "Balance" clan were particularly boisterous in inviting investigations.—[Potosi Republican, (dem.)

NATIONAL LOAN FUND
LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,
LONDON.

CAPITAL, - - - £2,500,000.

Guarantee Fund, $ 00 000, Deposited with the Comptroller of the State of New York.

The advantages offered by this Company are many, and the public are invited to call upon the Agent and make themselves acquainted with the System adopted by the Company, which they will be better able to decide whether Life Insurance is desirable or not, and at what Office His Insurance is best effected.

The many reasons why Fire and Marine Insurance should be adopted, are incontrovertible, and Life Insurance, which enters into many interests with, or underwrites those important risks, has claims which no other species of insurance can have. Human existence must on consideration enjoy a much higher estimation than worldly property.

While the property of a family lives, (although, strange to state, it may frequently be) become spent, squandered, or have been, but this death, ceases their management, part, unless it has saved them from want by an insurance on his life, which may be done by the payment of a small annual premium, the payments of which should be a little to him, comfort during life.

If a subscriber's annual payment will be light, and if insured at his prime of life will be constantly growing more valuable the longer the premium is continued.

Clergymen and others who have a stated and regular income, should secure wealth among that, at their death their family (many) be left destitute.

Men engaged in many line of manufacturing pursuits or heavy and current merchandizes, should insure.

The farmer will have a mortgage on his farm, should insure, at least to the extent of it, thereby enabling his family to pay off a debt in case of his death.

QUEEN'S PATENT
PORTABLE
AND BELLOWS!

THIS FORGE can be used where most convenient for heat and room, and the smoke conducted to the chimney by a pipe.

The Forge is in use of Blacksmiths, Coppersmiths, &c Farmers, Jewelers, Dentists and Chemists will find it a valuable article, when operator consults his own interest. The fire is drawn through several holes in the Tuyere, instead of working under the fire, prevents the Tuyere from getting out of shape, as it is with those fires that are set up with solid sand stones, as it will where the fire is drawn. For out door work and for smiths doing a small business, this Forge has great advantages over those fires which the horse can be close by, and by small and many purposes in-doors, specially useful to Dentists and for chemical operations from the fumes of coal and acids being confined. The Bellows, which is in the cylinder form, is the best ever offered to the public, and are warranted to give perfect satisfaction. The Bellows are made of the best material, and also by the Queen's Navy Yard.

The advantages offered by this Company are many, and the public are invited to call upon the Agent and make themselves acquainted with the System adopted by the Company, which they will be better able to decide whether Life Insurance is or is not, and at what Office this is the most suitable one.

The many reasons why Fire and Marine Insurance should be sought [illegible] are incontrovertible, and Life Insurance, which [illegible] may interfere with, or undervalue those important [illegible], has claims which no other system of Insurance can have.
